The Burkart-Trapani Family has established this scholarship to focus on community service specifically in the area of leadership and hands on work with diversity and inclusion. This includes volunteer service with any groups specific to areas such as ethnicity, sexual persuasion, age, socio-economic status, or mental or physical disabilities, but it is important to have shown some leadership involvement to help others come together. The family believes that we live in a world that is too divisive and we need more of our young people working to include others and appreciate each others differences.
